COMMITTEE FOR SCHEDULED CASTE/SCHEDULED TRIBES

Scheduled Castes constitute about 15 percent of the total population of the country while Scheduled Tribes constitute about 7.5 per cent of the total Indian Population. Thus, together, these groups constitute a little more than one fifth of the total population of the country. The Constitution of the country, promulgated in 1950, recognizes the scheduled castes and the scheduled tribes as the two most backward groups needing special protection. The main objective of providing reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in education / Government services is not just to give jobs to some persons belonging to these communities, and thereby increase their representations in the society, but to improve the status of these people socially and educationally so that they can take their rightful place in the mainstream of society. "To ensure the effective implementation of the reservation policy in admission, recruitment, hostels etc. SC/ST committee is established in the Universities and institutions." The purpose of such committee is to help the students in implementing the reservation policy with regard to the admission of students and the recruitment of teaching and non-teaching staff at various levels. Its function is also to help the SC/ST categories students and staff to integrate with the mainstream of the university/institution community and to remove difficulties, which they may be experiencing.

OBJECTIVES

- i. To implement the reservation policy for SCs/STs in Intuition.
- ii. To collect data regarding the implementation of the policies in respect of admissions, appointments to teaching and non-teaching positions in the institute and analyze the data showing the trends and changes towards fulfilling the required quota.
- iii. To mentor the SC/ST students for betterment and development of institute.
- iv. To sensitize SC/ST students about the overall functioning and policies of the Institute.
- v. To educate SC/ST students about the various government schemes and to guide them to complete required documentation.
- vi. To implement, monitor and evaluate continuously the reservation policy in universities and colleges and plan measures for ensuring effective implementation of the policy and program of the Government of India.

FUNCTIONS OF THE SC/ST COMMITTEE

1. To circulate Government of India and Commission's decisions and to collect regularly, on an annual basis, information regarding course-wise admissions to candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the Institute for UG and PG course.
2. To circulate Government of India orders and Commission's decisions and to collect information in respect of appointment, training of these communities in teaching and non-teaching posts in the Universities and Institute, in suitable forms by a stipulated date and take follow up the action where required.
3. To collect reports and information regarding the Government of India orders on the various aspects of education, training and employment of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes candidates, for evolving new policies or modifying existing policy by the Commission.
4. To analyze the information collected above and prepare reports and digests for onward transmission to the Ministry of Human Resource Development/University Grants Commission and such other authorities as may be required.
5. To monitor the working of the remedial coaching scheme, if approved by the affiliated institute and university.
6. To function as a Grievances redressal Cell for the Grievances of SC/ST students and employees of the university and render them necessary help in solving their academic as well as administrative activities.
7. Any other work assigned from time to time to promote higher education among these two communities suffering economic, social and education deprivations.

FREQUENCY OF MEETING:

Meeting will be conducted after every three months. All members of the committee must be present for the meeting. Agenda of meeting will be communicated to all the members before the meeting. Minutes of meeting and action taken will be recorded committee.

REDRESSAL MECHANISM:

The SC/ST Committee shall observe the following general principles:

1. The Law College Campus should be made fully aware of the SC/ST Committee redressal mechanism.
2. Every grievance from the student/staff should be registered and acknowledged by SC/ST Committee.

- If a final decision is not possible within a fortnight, an acknowledgement should be sent to the applicant along with an indication as to when he/she can expect a final reply.
3. As a matter of general rule no grievances should be pending beyond the limit of three months by SC/ST Committee.
 4. The officer nominated by the SC/ST Committee and the person responsible for addressing grievances should make himself/herself freely available to hear the grievances personally, at least once a week at fixed timings.
 5. He/she will take decisions on grievances which are pending for more than three months. Aggrieved parties who are not satisfied with redressal in subordinate/attached formation can approach the Head of Institute for a decision.

COMMITTEE FOR SCHEDULED CASTE/SCHEDULED TRIBES

Scheduled Castes constitute about 15 percent of the total population of the country while Scheduled Tribes constitute about 7.5 per cent of the total Indian Population. Thus, together, these groups constitute a little more than one-fifth of the total population of the country. The Constitution of the country, promulgated in 1950, recognizes the scheduled castes and the scheduled tribes as the two most backward groups needing special protection. The main objective of providing reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in education / Government services is not just to give jobs to some persons belonging to these communities, and thereby increase their representations in the society, but to improve the status of these people socially and educationally so that they can take their rightful place in the mainstream of society. "To ensure the effective implementation of the reservation policy in admission, recruitment, hostels etc. SC/ST committee is established in the Universities and institutions." The purpose of such committee is to help the students in implementing the reservation policy with regard to the admission of students and the recruitment of teaching and non-teaching staff at various levels. Its function is also to help the SC/ST categories students and staff to integrate with the mainstream of the university/institution community and to remove difficulties, which they may be experiencing.

OBJECTIVES

- i. To implement the reservation policy for SCs/STs in Intuition.
- ii. To collect data regarding the implementation of the policies in respect of admissions, appointments to teaching and non-teaching positions in the institute and analyze the data showing the trends and changes towards fulfilling the required quota.
- iii. To mentor the SC/ST students for betterment and development of institute.
- iv. To sensitize SC/ST students about the overall functioning and policies of the Institute.
- v. To educate SC/ST students about the various government schemes and to guide them to complete required documentation.
- vi. To implement, monitor and evaluate continuously the reservation policy in universities and colleges and plan measures for ensuring effective implementation of the policy and program of the Government of India.
